Open Gaming

Pick a game and play it in the open gaming area. Games can be borrowed from the game library and you can also look for games with “Players Wanted” signs to join. The open gaming area will be open all day and all night.

Is there a particular game that you’d like to learn? We will also have “Players Wanted” and “Teacher Wanted” signs available at the Game Library that you can take to a table with you. Now you can recruit more players or a teacher for that game you’ve been dying to try!

Game Library

While at STGCON, we will have an awesome game library set up with over 650 games for attendees to borrow and play. You may need a photo ID or Credit Card to be able to check out games. There is no fee, and these items may be held while you’re playing, and returned when the game is returned to the library.

Silent Auction

Are you a skilled bidder? Do you want more cool games and swag? We’ll be holding a silent auction Saturday. Bidding starts at 10am and goes until 7pm. Will be held near registration.

Below this, in smaller black letters, is "★ THERE ARE ENDLESS WAYS TO CUSTOMIZE ★". Further down, the number "5" is displayed in large black font, with "SEASONINGS" written below it. At the bottom of the triangle, a small black star is visible. The background of the triangle features two images of Buffalo Wild Wings food: a bowl of wings on the left and a box of wings on the right. On either side of the triangle, there is a circular logo featuring a black silhouette of a buffalo with white wings on a yellow background. The bottom of the graphic has a black banner with white text that reads "BRING THIS AD OR YOUR TICKET STUB IN TO THE ST. Photo Sharing Contests

We love to have attendees share photos of the games they are playing at STGCON! Every time you share a photo of a game you are playing, you are entered to win a prize! Throughout the convention, we will randomly give prizes for photos posted on Facebook.

How to Enter: Share a photo on our Facebook page, tell us what you are doing in the photo, and tag @stgconut

Have great pictures but don't use Facebook? No problem! Just email them over to us at stgconut@gmail.com and we will upload them for you!

Flea Market/Game Trade

Do you have old games that are ready to move on, won something that isn't your cup of tea? We will not be holding an official scheduled flea market this year. Instead, we will be setting aside a space for those wishing to sell or trade, and leave their contact information.

Attendees will be able to peruse through the games throughout the convention, and contact those who are selling/trading. You are also welcome to bring a sell/trade list that we can post at the flea market space! This is a great opportunity to enhance your personal game library with sometimes hard to find games!

STGCON is not responsible for the quality or completeness of games at the flea market. Make sure you inspect all games before buying!

Vendors

Please make sure to check out and support our vendors. The vendor area will be open Friday from 2pm to 10pm, Saturday 10am-10pm and Sunday 10am-4pm.
